The VERY BEST Goods at Reasonable Prices

We appreciate the splendid trade we have enjoyed during the Fall season and are putting forth every effort to give the people the very latest creations in and everything for winter wear. Our many years of experience enable us to buy the best goods at prices which permit us to sell them to the consumer at less than most merchants can afford to do. We invite you to call and see our immense stock, for we know we can please you in both quality and price.

Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shoes

JOSEPH MERCANTILE CO.

Guns, Guns. Shells, Powder, SHOT, ETC.

HASELDEN BROS.

Wanted, young lady to sell tickets at the Electric Theater.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church are going to have a bazar the first Saturday in December.

Rev M F Hill, Secretary of the Kentucky Conference, will preach at the Methodist church, at Mt Olivet next Sunday morning and at Bryantsville Sunday night.

A big crowd came in to county court Monday, but business among the farmers was not overly brisk. The merchants report a good day. There were no stock sales of note.

The ladies of the Methodist church will have an apron sale in Thompson's store on Dec 14th. Your patronage will be appreciated. Everything good to eat will also be served.

The C W B M will have their annual doll sale at the Stormes room on Danville street, Dec 13 and 14. They will have a fine display of dolls, and will also serve refreshments.

Making A Fine Race.

Mr W S Fish, of Paint Lick, was here Tuesday and tells us he is getting along best kind in his race for county clerk of Madison county. He has been living on the Madison side for many years and has a legion of friends in that section, who are for him and doing all they can in his behalf. "Billy" is a mighty clever man, and we trust that he will knock the persimmon.

Faulkner Kennedy, on trial for murder was again given a sentence of twenty-one years, at Stanford last week. He was tried by a Garrard county jury.

All of the stores will be closed during the entire of tomorrow, giving the clerks a rest. This office will not be opened, all hands having engagements to be out of town.

Fine Offices.

Dr J M Acton has moved his offices into the handsome suite just completed over Stormes' drug store. He has sub-rented two of them to Dr B F Walter, the dentist. They are unquestionably the handsomest in this section.

Candidate For Speaker.

Our former townsman, Col E W Lillard, now of Danville, has announced as a candidate for Speaker of the next House. Col Lillard is in every way fitted for the place, and his Garrard county friends hope that he will be successful.

Death of Former Garrard-Co. Man.

News of the death of Rush Lee Elkin, aged eighty years, has been received by Garrard county friends and relatives. He resided at Jackson, Miss., but has not been to Kentucky for some time. He was a brother of Mrs M D Hughes and Capt T A Elkin, of this city.

Will Sustained.

The Gillispie will case came to a close late last Thursday afternoon. Judge Ford rendering a decision in favor of maintaining the will. The case will be appealed to circuit court. It will be remembered that Gillispie left his estate to a charitable institution in Louisville.

The Sunday School rally at Fairview last Sunday was quite a success owing to the untiring efforts of the superintendent, Mrs J A Arnold, ably assisted by Miss Nannie Rogers. At the close of the very interesting program a Christian Endeavor society was organized with large membership and good prospects for future work.

Secret Griefs.

Trouble comes in many forms. It may be a bitter disappointment which falls upon a young life when love has not been true or when character has proved unworthy, turning the fair blossoms of hope to dead leaves under the feet, says an exchange. There are lives that bear the pain and hidden memorial of such a grief through long years, making them sad at heart even when walking in sweetest sunshine. Or it may be the failure of some other hope, as when one has followed a bright dream of ambition for days and years, finding it only a dream. Or it may be the keener, more bitter grief which comes to one when a friend is untrue or disgraces himself. The anguish which love endures for others' sins is among the saddest of earth's sorrows. If we knew the inner life of many of the people we meet we would be very gentle with them and would excuse the things in them that seem strange or eccentric to us. They are carrying burdens of secret grief.

Circuit Court.

The November term of the Garrard Circuit Court began Monday morning with His Honor, Judge W C Bell, on the bench, and Commonwealth's Attorney Chas Hardin and County Attorney Joe E Robinson on hand to make the way of the transgressor hard. There are no criminal cases of consequence and the civil docket is light. As we go to press ahead of time this week, nothing of interest has been done. Following is list of grand jury: Jas Hill, foreman, Jas Clark, J J Poor, Chas Adams, Wm Sutton, J W Reid, Tom Naylor, Robt Brown, David Stevens, Reuben Prather, Joe Burnside, John Newland.

The petit jury is as follows: M K Ross, H B Cox, Wm Sherrow, H C Hamilton, T A Elkin, Walton Moss, John Campbell, Jack Bourne, M G Aldridge, J F Ruble, Loyd Bourne, T M Scott, C A Robinson, Mose Lawson, Wm Broadus, J T Henry, C F Ison, C C Hendrickson, Rufus Moss, J K Sutton, J T Clark, Givens Terrill, Walter Fain, G H Lane.

A Fine Attraction.

The Electric Theater in the Sweetey store room (skating rink) is drawing large crowds every night. The moving pictures are especially good. Beautifully illustrated songs are greatly enjoyed. The Record advises you to attend, as the work of the machinery is not only wonderful, but enjoyable.

Constitutional.

Frankfort Ky Nov 22—In the cases of the Commonwealth vs Lexington Brewing Company, Singer Manufacturing Company, Remington Typewriter Company, and several other cases from Boyle county, involving the constitutionality of the act requiring corporations to insert the word "Incorporated" in all their signs and advertisements, the Court of Appeals hold the act constitutional, but the prosecution must be had in the county where the principal officer of the company in this State resides, or in the county where the company's designated agent for services of process resides.

Police Trains.

Mr Clarence E Woods, Mayor of Richmond, Ky., who has been in attendance on the Kentucky State Development Association, incidentally put through a matter which will be of special interest to the people of his city and section. "Since Richmond went dry last July," said he to a representative of the Times with reference to the matter, "the bums of our town go to Winchester for their booze and, returning, create much disorder on the trains, making it disagreeable and even dangerous to passengers. I took up the matter with the legal department of the L. & N. road and as a result trains are to be policed under a statute and the nuisance broken up. The policing is also to be extended to Stanford below us and also on the branch to Livingston, similar disorders having occurred between these points." —Louisville Times.

Garrard County Hero.

The Western School Journal prints the following in regard to the heroism of a gentleman who was born and raised in Garrard county, and is well remembered by many of our citizens. The Journal says: We are exceedingly glad to learn that the Carnegie hero fund has recognized the remarkable heroism of Andrew J Hedger, recently superintendent of the Haskell County schools. He was born in Kentucky in 1861. The following is the dispatch announcing the award and giving the particulars: "A gold medal and $3,600, with which to educate his four children, is the award given tonight by the Carnegie hero fund commission to Andrew J Hedger, county superintendent of schools at Santa Fe, Kan. Hedger's case shows remarkable heroism. Through death seemed almost certain, he rescued Joseph H King from death and recovered the body of William H Nunn near Pieceville, Kan., November 27, 1906. King and Nunn, both farmers, were repairing a drilled well seventy-six feet deep. They dug a hole along the side of the pipe thirty-six feet deep. A ton or more of earth caved from the top of the hole mounted a horse and gave the alarm. Hedger was visiting a school two miles away. He arrived at scene an hour after the accident. Several farmers were discussing ways and means to rescue the man. Hedger asked for volunteers to aid. None offered themselves. Then he offered to draw licks. This proposition was also declined. Hedger is five feet, ten inches tall and weighs 200 pounds. When the farmers refused to aid him he calmly wrote his name in a book, wrote the names and addresses of his children, and gave them, together with his life insurance policy, to one of the party. He was lowered into the hole and after working two hours with a fire shovel released King, who was drawn to the surface. "Fastening a rope around Nunn's body, Hedger then allowed himself to be drawn out of the hole. Within a short time after his work was accomplished another cave in occurred. Hedger's wife has been confined in a hospital eight years. His children are 16, 14, 12 and 10 years old."

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub, which the doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr Shoop's 'Take no other.' R E McRoberts: *

Years of Suffering Then Robust Health.

Great Remedy Cured Skin Disease of Long Standing.

Mr J Weber, of 1065 Vine street, San Jose, Cal writes an interesting story of terrible skin suffering which ended in robust health when he found a remedy which cured him like magic. "Here is Mr Weber's own story:

"In July, 1900, my face began to be affected with a terrible skin disease. I went to a doctor, and he told me that I had been poisoned and he wanted to operate on me. I refused to let him do so and after a few months my face was an awful sight. You could see that it was diseased to the bone. Some people claimed that I had cancer. Great boils would appear, increasing in size and painning me terribly. I began to doctor again but no one could help me; large pimples and boils would continue to come. At that time I had as many as ten on my face. I was such a terrible sight that my friends could not bear to see me. I doctored for five years until my funds gave out and I had to stop. During this time I tried over 300 remedies.

"One day I happened to hear of D D D Prescription and learned that it had cured several bad cases of Eczema. I purchased a bottle and then I got a second bottle. The use of five bottles cured me. It has been eight months now and the disease has not returned. My friends ask what it was that cured me of the awful skin trouble and I answer that it was D D D which healed me."

We know that every word of the above letter is absolutely true. We keep D D D Prescription, the great remedy for eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, dandruff etc, because all the cures it has made appear to be lasting. Come in and talk to us about this remedy.

Paint Lick, Ky., August 14th, 1906.

I have one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates that I have used for about seven months, it has not been out of repair in the least, and has not given me one moment's trouble so far, and can't see how it will. I like it splendid.

Respectfully, J. C. Rucker.

After using one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates, can say that it gives perfect satisfaction. I consider it the best gate I have ever seen. Would not do without mine for double the cost of it. Yours truly,

J. B. Woods.

Paint Lick, Ky.

I have owned one of the Whitaker Automatic Gates for some time. I have given perfect satisfaction and swings so nicely and works so easy that any child can operate it. My little four year old boy has no trouble in using this gate.

Very respectfully, S. D. Cochran.

Buckeye, Ky.

I was the first in this county to purchase one of these gates. I am well pleased with it and would not do without it one year for the cost of the gate. I advise every one that needs a good gate to buy one, they are all right.

THE CHRISTIAN WORLD

STORY OF TWO CHINESE GIRLS.

One Reared in Christian Home Wins Other Away from Her Idols.

MARY STONE.

Mary Stone ("Stone" being a translation of the Chinese name Shih, meaning "a stone") was born into a Christian family, her father having been the first convert to Christianity in all of the Yangtze valley. When Mary was eight years old, her father, then one of the most valued native preachers of the Methodist mission, took her to Miss Howe, in Kiangling, and asked that she be trained for the medical profession. At 19 she entered Michigan university on English examination, graduating with her degree of M. D. four years later. Dr. Stone then returned to Kiangling, where she has had charge of the hospital work for the last ten years.

In the same city, in the same year that Mary Stone was born, another baby girl of the same family name came into the world, but her home was born into a heathen home. "Rii Kuliang," as she is called, lost her father when very young, and the mother at once vowed she would never remarry, but devote her life to searching for the true religion, adopting the life, customs and dress of the Taoist nun. In a very pretty little home on the outskirts of the city this woman lived a life of utter seclusion, her one companion being her little daughter, who, as she grew older and proved to be a beautiful girl, was educated in her home, and taught the three religions of the east; and she, too, adopting the wily path of the Taoists, became known, like her mother, as a "truth-seeker."

The reputation of the two women for their piety came to the ears of the emperor, who ordered that his seal be placed over the gate, thus insuring their safety from molestation.

For many years the Christian members of the Stone family sought to gain admittance to the home, but it was not until two years ago that the door was opened to them. And since then God has used the dear little doctor-cousin to effect a change, says the Christian Herald. The free, happy life of Dr. Stone attracted the little nun, and the gay, almost childlike spirit of the Christian, with her bright face and merry laughter, soon drew forth the confidence of the lonely recluse. First came the interchange of calls, and Rii Kuliang became intensely interested in the beautiful girl of her cousin, spending hours following her about the hospital. Then the Bible was introduced and a copy placed in the hands of the "truth-seeker."

Last winter, just a short time before Dr. Stone started for America, Rii Kuliang accepted an invitation to come to our home in the medical compound, and for a week the timid, shrinking little Taoist nun lived and slept in the home of Christians, the first time in her life away from the idols. Here she saw the free, happy, useful life of her cousin. Each morning she attended prayers, hearing the sweet songs of faith and love.

A few days after our visitor had returned to her home we went to call on her at "Purity Hall." A bright, eager face welcomed us. The mother said to Dr. Stone: "Since Rii Kuliang came back from your house she hasn't been near her idols once!"

PROGRESS OF KINGDOM.

"It abideth alone" explains away some lives. They have never learned the law of service.

The American International convention of Y. M. C. A.'s is to be held in Washington next November. President Roosevelt has signified his willingness to receive the delegates at the White House. In the city of Calcutta there are now six branches of the Y. M. C. A., with a membership of 1,078; six residential houses, affording accommodation for 200 men, with 174 actually in residence; 12 secretaries, six of whom are Indians and seven Europeans; four buildings rented, and four, valued at $50,000 rupees, owned by the associations.

Religion may become an escape from duty, rather than its inspiration and fulfillment.

People who complain of the days being too short to do the good that awaits them often live as though life would be too long.

A Baptist deacon who has been traveling through the south said recently: "I find that wherever I go there is the spirit of revival in the churches. Successful revivals are being held all over the country."

A New Society.

A new society that goes by the name of "The Student Recruits for the Christian Ministry" has recently been formed in California. The time seems to have come to present the claims of the ministry upon young men in a businesslike way. This California organization, fostered by Y. M. C. A. interests, will be watched with considerable curiosity.

His Doom.

The preacher who is feeding the children on philosophy may have to work his teeth on chaff some day.

ROAD AND FARM IMPROVEMENT

RUNNING THE GRINDSTONE.

Some Suggestions for Making a Hard Job Easy.

Handy Grindstone Rig.

surprising how easy a little oil on the bearings will make the stone run, yet some of my neighbors never think to oil theirs. A few drops of kerosene will cut the gum if it runs hard and then some oil or axle grease will make it go easy.

It is hard to stand on one foot and work the treadle with the other. This job can be made easy, suggests a writer in Farm and Home, by bolting two boards to the grindstone frame, and extending it two feet, on which place a seat as shown in the cut. With a smooth and even face the grindstone works nicely, but when it becomes uneven it is hard work to do a good job of grinding. Such a stone needs to be cut down and toned up. This can be done by grinding against the end of a piece of pipe, having the stone dry. There is nothing more exasperating than to try to work with a poor grindstone, but with a good one it is a pleasure to keep the tools sharp.

HELPS THE ROADS.

Experience of the Specialist at Nebraska Experiment Station.

The following from a recent issue of the Nebraska Farmer gives their experience with the road drag on the roads near the Nebraska experiment station:

"A good proof of road dragging with split log drags was shown last winter during the long spell of deep muddy roads. The roads next to the farm have been dragged for the last four or five years, and comparing them with others it makes a very great contrast. While some of the other roads are hardly dry, and a good many are rough and rutty the dragged roads have long become smooth and are as hard as brick. Every day during very muddy weather the depth of mud on the dragged roads was slight compared with that of the undragged roads. When a person drives over a road of this kind when muddy it is like driving on pavement with but one to two inches of mud while the undragged road sinks to a depth of nine inches in places and also very heavy pulling, having no solid ground under the mud. A farmer who believes it does not pay to drag roads is badly mistaken. In eastern Nebraska it is just beginning to become a practice. And the ones to introduce it there were the students of the school of agriculture."

FARM JOTTINGS.

Give the sheep shelter from the sun. You can never improve a flock by using a grade sire.

Now is the time to select the best possible sire for the flock.

The superiority of beef breeds is largely in their early maturity.

Choose a thoroughbred of the breed that suits the fancy or surrounding conditions.

Well drained land will stand drought or freshet better than land that has not been drained.

Wethers intended for market should be put in a pasture by themselves, where they can be liberally fed.

When ewes are gaining in condition at mating time, there will be a large percentage of twins and the lambs will be stronger.

The feeding of cotton seed meal is not yet reduced to a science. Any man that undertakes it should avail himself of all extant information on the subject.

Cribbing.

Cribbing is a vice contracted by horses and hard to break. It may be restrained, says Farm Journal, by bucking a strap round the throat loosely enough to allow the horse to breathe readily; also by snapping the halter to a rod that will prevent the horse from getting his teeth on to anything to "suck wind."

Stringhalt.

Stringhalt is sometimes due to local injury. Closely observe the stable, change the stall, bathe the limbs in hot brine and attend to the shoeing. Your farrier may discover some fault in shoeing that may be remedied. A pronounced case can be corrected only by an operation.

A LINE MISSING.

She was crazy about palmistry. She had bought half-a-dozen books and studied the lines and the mounts and the stars, and she had read her Henry's fortune time and again. So he undertook to read her hand one night, with her help.

"This is my heart line, dear," she said, as she traced with her fingers across the palm.

"Yes; your heart line."

"You see how well-defined and strong it is?"

"Yes; beloved; but it is not quite straight, and this book says that little lines running out of it are evidences of previous affections."

"Oh, but this great break is you. Then there's my head line."

"Yes, darling. If your heart were as level as your head—I mean in palmistry—I would not be so jealous."

"But you mustn't read it like that. What are you looking for?"

He was very anxiously scanning the book and the hand.

"Dearest, I love you. You have a magnificent life line and a splendid heart line and a level head line, but—"

"Well?"

"I am poor, and if you could only show me the kitchen line the future would be one unbroken dream of happiness."

Humiliating.

"What is the most humiliating thing in the world?"

"I can tell you. It happened to me not long ago. I had taken my wife and four children out for a ride one Sunday afternoon. We had a shabby-looking rig from a livery stable, and as we were going through the park we met a girl to whom I had once been engaged. She was looking back in one of the finest automobiles I ever saw and she made her husband look as if he ate 12 meals a day. I felt so small that I could have crawled into the whip socket."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Sympathy.

Captain (to stowaway)—So, you young rascal, ran away from home, did you? You ought to be thrashed for leaving home, and thrashed again for getting aboard a ship without permission.

Stowaway.

"Please, sir, my sister commenced taking music lessons, and practisin' scales on the pianer, and I thought there wouldn't be no pianers on ships—"

Come to my arms, son.

"Come to my arms, son. I had a musical sister once myself."—N. Y. Weekly.

Easy to Raise.

Stub—It doesn't pay to do too much demonstrating. I told Harker all one had to do with my new umbrella was to touch it and it would go up.

Penn—And did he touch it?

Stub—Yes, he "touched" it and I haven't seen it since.—Chicago News.

More Pity.

Wife (during the spat)—I only married you because I pitied you.

Husband—Well, everybody pities me now.—Chicago Daily News.

STUDIES IN SENSE.

Wife—A man is the most sensible of all animals, is he not?

Hubby—Certainly.

Wife—Then I wonder why he doesn't wear a loose, comfortable collar like a dog's.

Not Shakespearean.

"My husband," said the conceited lady, "is a Shakespearean actor."

"Indeed! Does he play in 'Hamlet'?" asked her friend.

"No," said the actor's wife; "he only plays in the larger cities."

A Definition.

A little girl who had listened to a discussion of the nature-fakers in literature, when asked to define the human and animal families replied, "A brute is an imperfect beast; man is a perfect beast."

"Of the Making of Magazines."

Prospective Customer—Have you the Uptonow Magazine?

News-stand Proprietor (to assistant)—Billy, refer to your index and see if we have the Uptonow?—Puck.

Soured on Him.

Freshly—I attempted to squeeze Miss Gay's hand last night.

Dobson—What did she do?

Freshly—Handed me a lemon.—Judge.

Explained.

"Say dad, what does upitty mean?"

"The same as pernickety, my son."

"Well what does pernickety mean?"

"The same as upitty. Run along now."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart and the stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.
